ADVENTURE GAMEBOOK 4

SONIC™ THE HEDGEHOG

YO! KEEP AN EYE OPEN FOR
CHAOS EMERALDS SCATTERED
THROUGHOUT THE BOOK. YOU WON'T
BE ABLE TO BEAT ROBOTNIK
WITHOUT THEM!

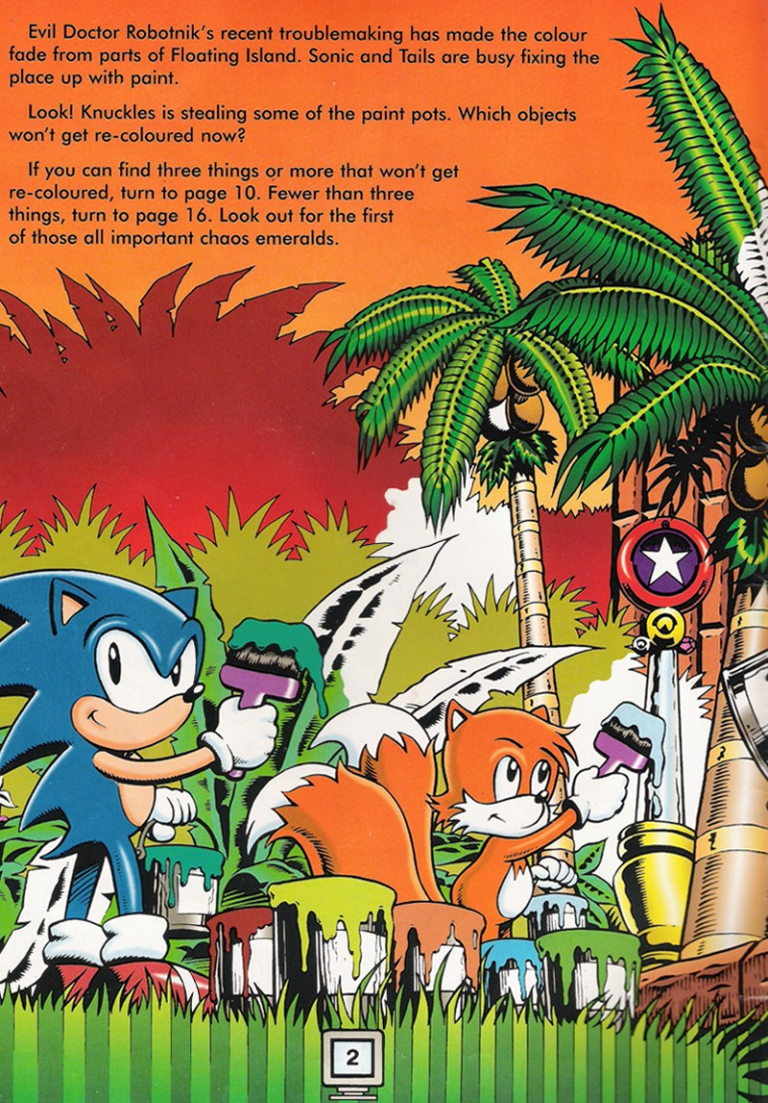

Ladybird

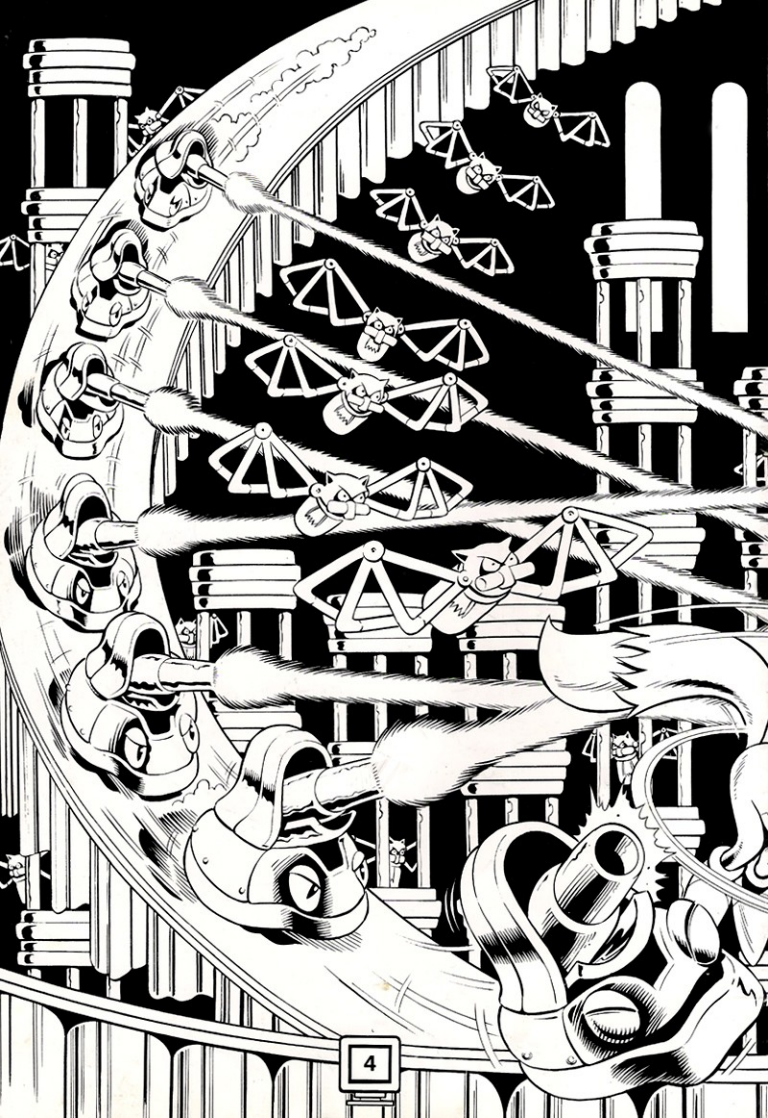

Evil Doctor Robotnik's recent troublemaking has made the colour fade from parts of Floating Island. Sonic and Tails are busy fixing the place up with paint.

Look! Knuckles is stealing some of the paint pots. Which objects won't get re-coloured now?

If you can find three things or more that won't get re-coloured, turn to page 10. Fewer than three things, turn to page 16. Look out for the first of those all important chaos emeralds.

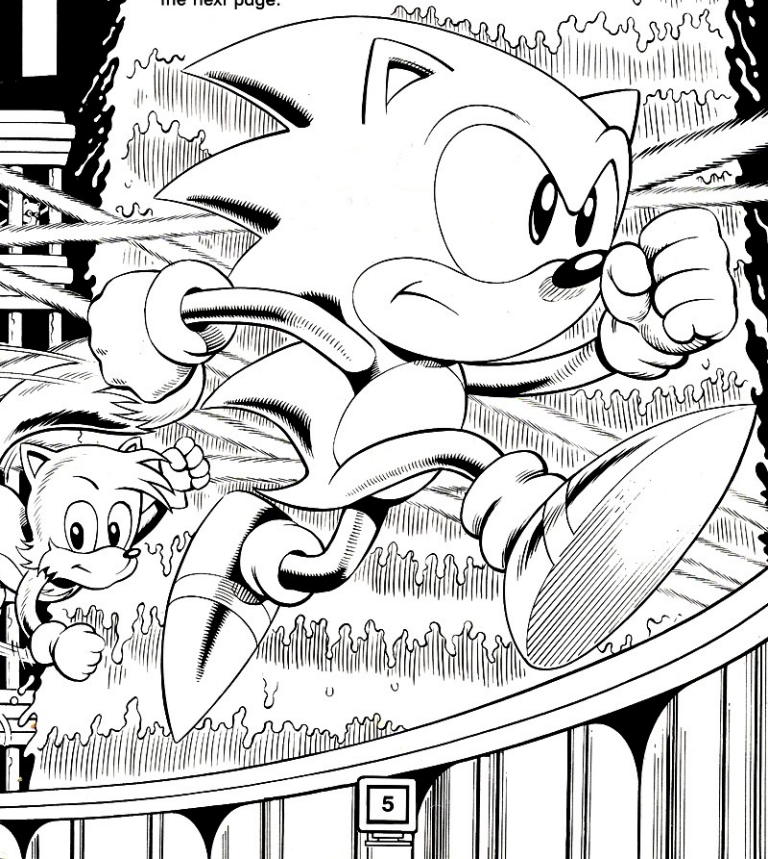

No sign of Knuckles here but there are plenty of Badniks.
Run for it, dudes!

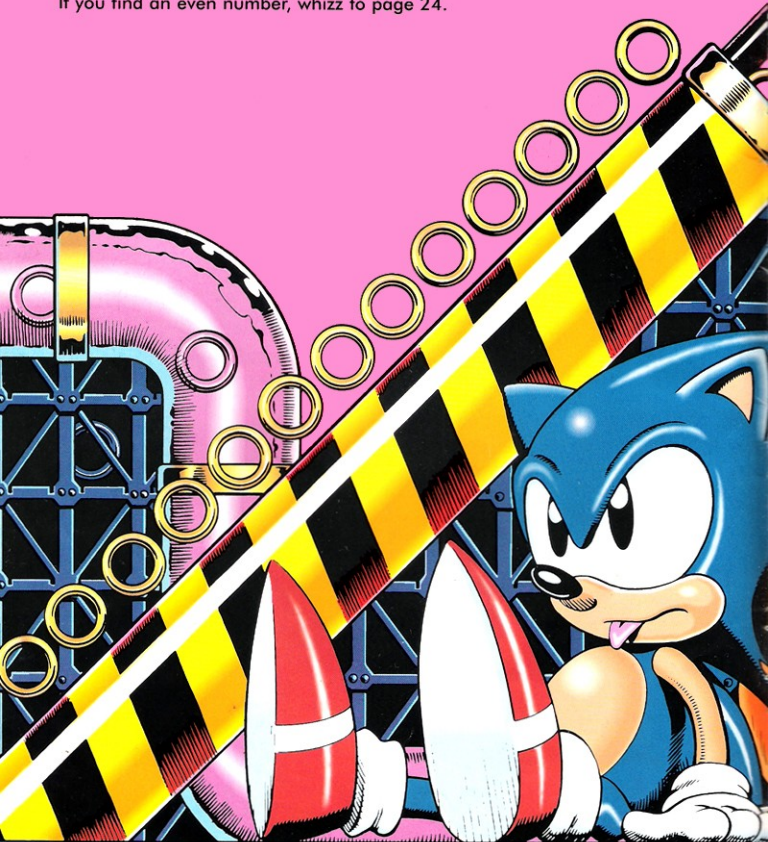

This part of Hydro City Zone has had the colour blasted out of it by Robotnik, so Sonic and Tails will have to come back later and bring their paint pots.

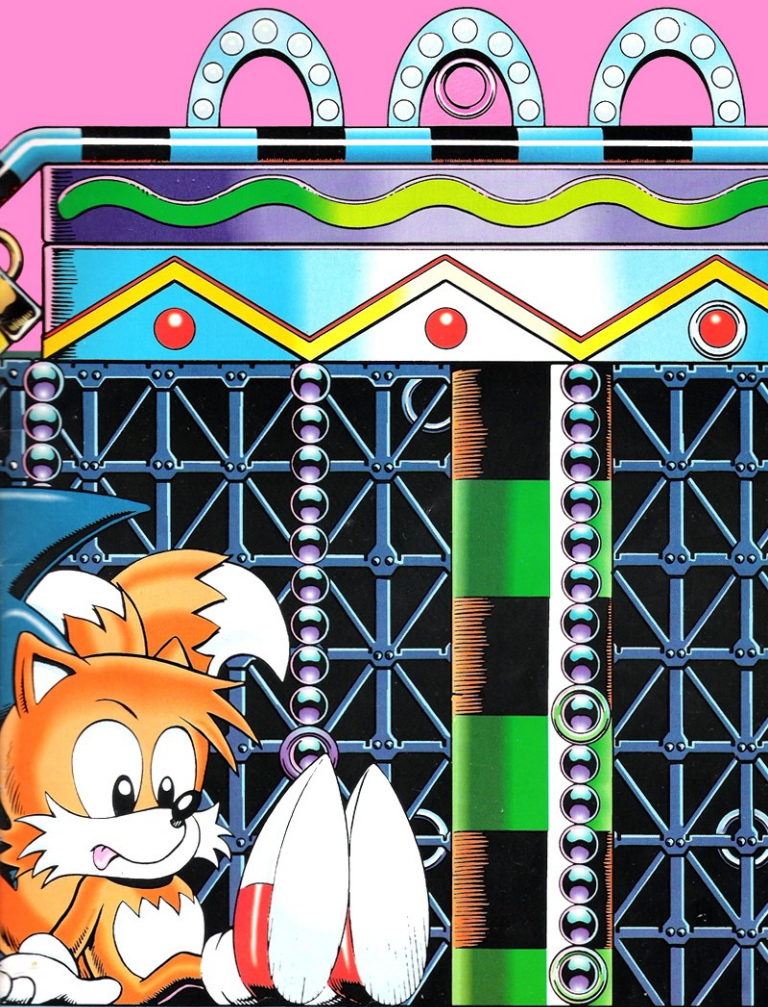

Right now, it's stay alive time! Blastoids and Batbots at six o'clock, and our heroes aren't sure which way to run. Count up the flying Badniks—the total is the number of the next page.

Beat on their feet! Sonic and Tails have been searching for Knuckles for so long that they're both exhausted. Maybe the glitter and sparkle of Carnival Zone will perk them up!

Help them find as many gold rings as possible to power them up. If you find an odd number of rings, zoom on to page 18. If you find an even number, whizz to page 24.

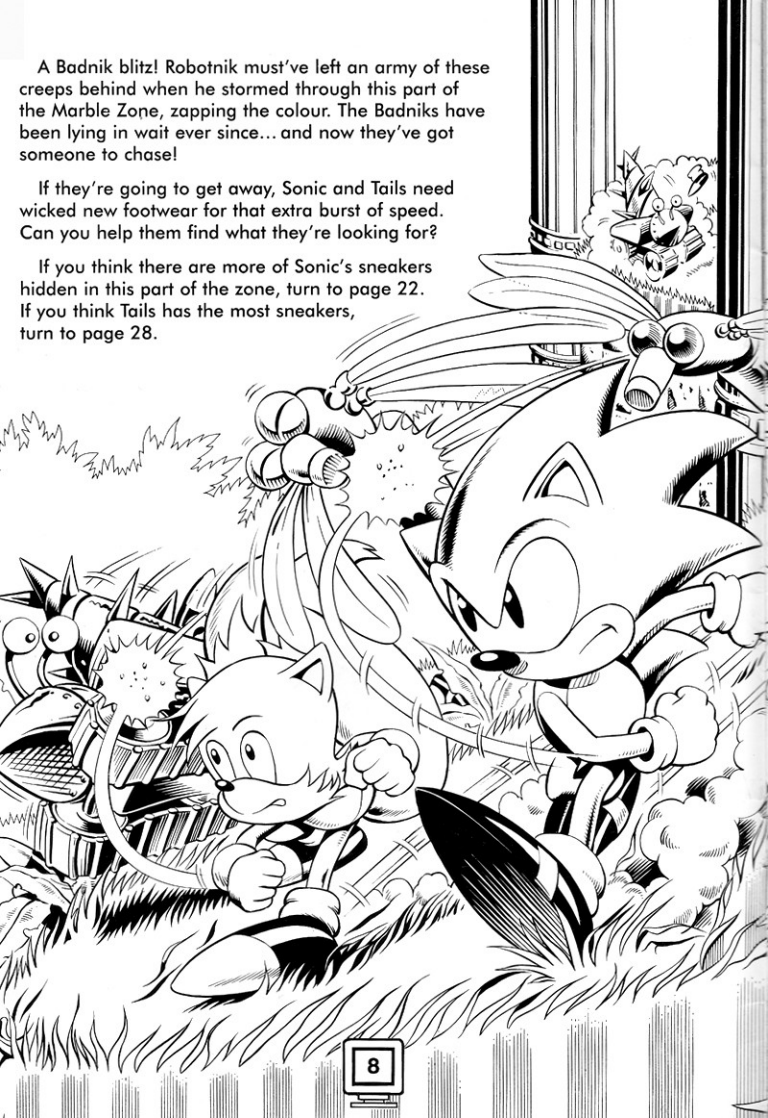

A Badnik blitz! Robotnik must've left an army of these creeps behind when he stormed through this part of the Marble Zone, zapping the colour. The Badniks have been lying in wait ever since... and now they've got someone to chase!

If they're going to get away, Sonic and Tails need wicked new footwear for that extra burst of speed. Can you help them find what they're looking for?

If you think there are more of Sonic's sneakers hidden in this part of the zone, turn to page 22. If you think Tails has the most sneakers, turn to page 28.

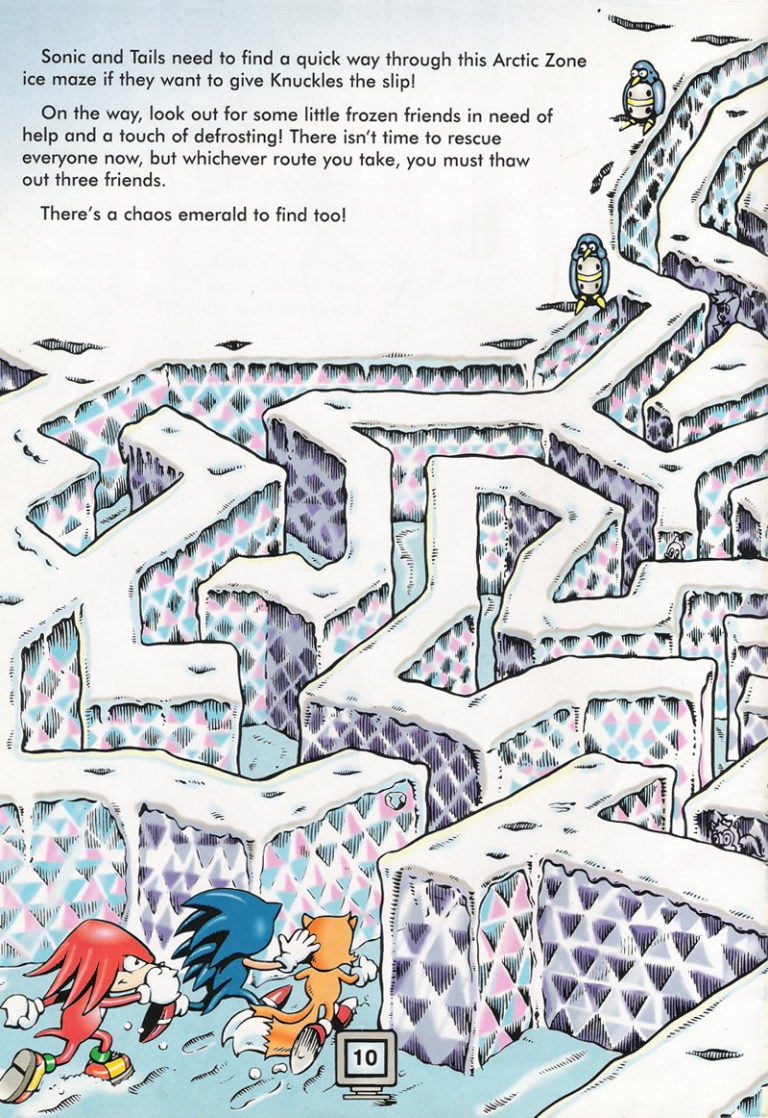

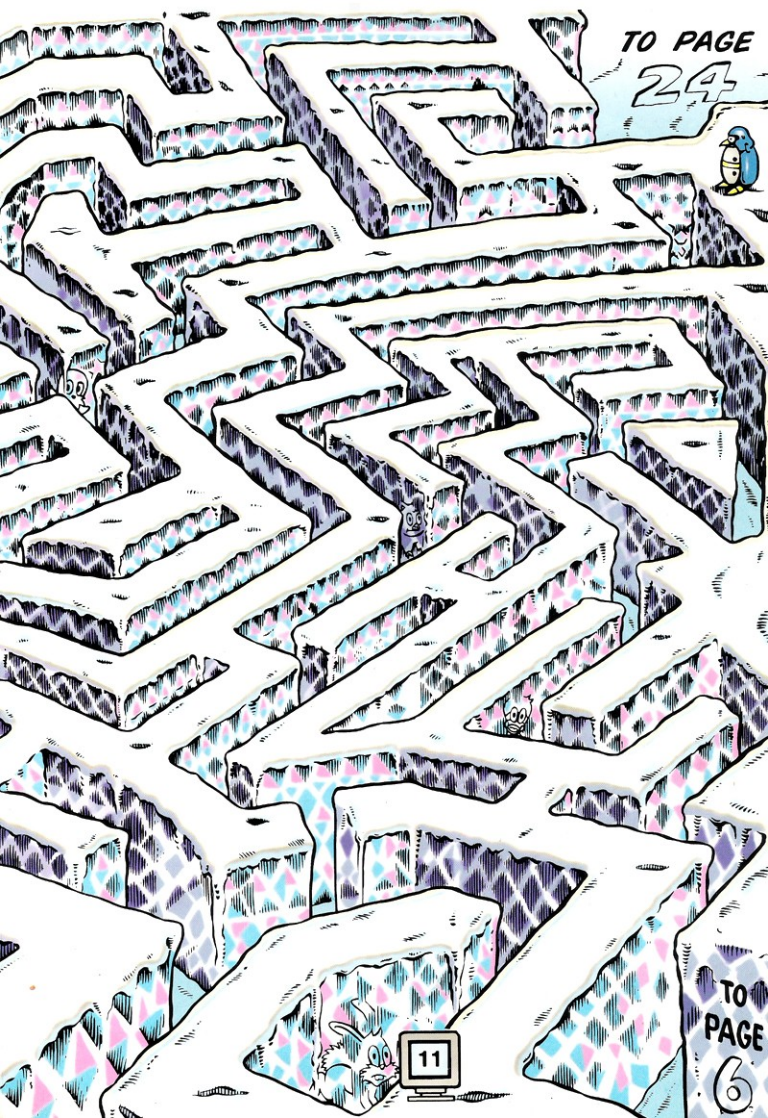

Sonic and Tails need to find a quick way through this Arctic Zone ice maze if they want to give Knuckles the slip!

On the way, look out for some little frozen friends in need of help and a touch of defrosting! There isn't time to rescue everyone now, but whichever route you take, you must thaw out three friends.

There's a chaos emerald to find too!
